

KCampfire are a loose music collective based in Stockholm gathered around the singer and songwriter Ken Andersson. And this is their new single Modern Age/Idiot Rec/Sometimes.

This time KC seem to have stumbled across a box of Japanese samplers in between full band sessions.

Ken has released two full-length albums and a 7" through RAR as Korea and Korea Campfire (apart from a steady stream of high-quality lo-fi cassettes och CD-r's owned only by die-hards).

Discography:

"Modern Age""KCampfire 7"/DL 2012 (Idiot Rec exclusively on vinyl)

"Korea Campfire" Korea Campfire, LP/DL 2009

"Lodie", Korea Campfire, CD/DL 2004

"Different Every Time", Korea, 7" EP/DL 2004

KCampfire combine a masterful sense of melody with personal and delicate arrangements.

Musicians on the record include Johan Svahn och Kristoffer Sundberg.

The 7" is available on DL at all outlets and on vinyl through RAR.

Nice listening!
